A MODERN TAKE ON CLASSIC HERITAGE DESIGNS - ABERDEEN by Warwick

Bring a traditional, homely style into your space with ABERDEEN. Featuring a mix of on-trend pattern and stripes, ABERDEEN is a contemporary collection of reinterpreted heritage designs with a modern look and feel that are suitable for both residential and commercial spaces — from relaxed, to rustic.

- DESIGN: Made in Europe, ABERDEEN features five classic, transitional patterns that will bring a warm, inviting, and organic aesthetic. Dry, yet soft to the touch, each design is jacquard woven and yarn dyed, giving the fabric a high-end finish that is tactile in nature. INGHAM is a subtle textured plain that pairs back perfectly with each design; GATLIN is a fresh, relaxed geometric, whereas ALLORA is more traditional and smaller in scale; DERRY is a multi-coloured stripe; and ABERDEEN is a simple yet bold traditional stripe.
- APPLICATION: Inherently durable, ABERDEEN is bound to bring relaxed and classic styles to both residential and commercial interiors with its romantic outlook of traditional motifs. Featuring the added benefit of Oeko-Tex certification, ABERDEEN's versatility and mix and match offering makes this collection perfect for creating sophisticated sofas, as well as statement cushions and lampshades.
- COLOURWAYS: In eight colourways, ABERDEEN's palette consists of both traditional and contemporary colours to suit a myriad of spaces with a modern twist. Key neutrals can be found in Linen, Grey, and Ebony, while Seafoam and Navy bring a cool-toned finish. For trend-driven shades, Blush, Terracotta, and Honey are beautiful hues that will add warmth and create inviting moods.
- RATING: Oeko-Tex certified, ABERDEEN is a versatile and durable upholstery collection that is suitable for commercial and residential applications. Classic yet contemporary, ABERDEEN's designs and timeless colourways allow for numerous styles to be created — especially for a rustic feel or homely aesthetic.

WHERE INTRICATE PATTERN MEETS CLASSIC BEAUTY - OSIRIS by Warwick

Embrace the beauty of eclectic yet classic pattern with OSIRIS. Timeless with an alluring charm, OSIRIS is a collection of modernised traditional pattern that will bring sophistication and style to both contemporary residential and commercial interiors.

- DESIGN: In four transitional designs, OSIRIS is a woven jacquard collection that embodies a colour varied yarn for a subtle tonal effect — perfect for a relaxed, organic aesthetic. Textured with a dry finish and slight sheen, OSIRIS is a reinterpretation of traditional patterns that is made to mix and match. In this collection, LYRA offers a worldly and eclectic ikat design; SOMNER, a decorative Jacobean floral; OSIRIS, an intricate ornamental paisley; and EMIR, a complementary, two-toned plain that pairs back effortlessly with each pattern.
- APPLICATION: Durable with a Heavy Commercial rating and Halo easy-clean benefits, OSIRIS is bound to create unique spaces with elegance and character. Oeko-Tex certified and FR tested, this collection is ideal for tactile upholstery applications. From statement sofas and ottomans to romantic cushions and lampshades, OSIRIS will sit beautifully and with poise in an array of environments.
- COLOURWAYS: Featuring a playful palette of seven colourways, OSIRIS offers timeless, neutrals hues alongside soft pops of colour. Alabaster, Linen, and Sky bring therapeutic tones for a soothing, calming aesthetic, while Rouge and Sage offer a warm, autumnal touch. For deeper options, Navy and Charcoal are perfect for adding extra depth and complexity, creating moody, classic styles.
- RATING: Heavy Commercial with an AS1530.3 fire rating and Oeko-Tex certification, OSIRIS is a hard-wearing collection with Halo easy-clean properties, making it perfectly suitable for commercial and residential applications. Bringing the beauty of traditional pattern into a modern light, this collection is extremely versatile where it can create stylish, romantic, or sophisticated moods and aesthetics.

CREATE UNIQUE, SOPHISTICATED SPACES WITH A PLUSH FINISH - FELIX by Warwick

Funky yet sophisticated in its design, FELIX is a transitional, textured plain that brings a velvet-like texture with an appealing, subtle print. Durable and versatile, FELIX is perfect for creating playful, distinctive styles with an inviting finish for contemporary residential and commercial spaces alike.

- DESIGN: Soft and plush, FELIX is a plain, velvet-look knit with a unique, mottled print that creates the illusion of a felted wool. This textured finish offers visual interest, and coupled with a diverse, colourful palette, FELIX brings a fresh, modern take on classic velvet and is bound to add sophistication to both casual and contemporary interiors.
- APPLICATION: FR tested to AS1530.3 standards with Halo easy-clean properties, FELIX is ideal for creating stylish upholstery pieces, including cushions, with the added benefit of Heavy Commercial durability and Oeko-Tex certification. FELIX will sit charmingly in modern residential and urban commercial spaces, offering character and a heavenly touch wherever it is applied.
- COLOURWAYS: In 22 colourways, FELIX's palette combines classic neutrals with playful pops of colour to create a myriad of looks and moods. Warm neutrals can be found in Mushroom, Bone, and Bark, while impactful shades of Thunder and Shadow bring darker, modern alternatives for complexity. For nature-inspired tones, Goldenrod, Rust, and Capet offer an earthy feel, whilst Navy, Petrol, and Teal are beautiful ocean hues that are perfect for creating calming environments.
- RATING: Heavy Commercial with Halo easy-clean benefits and an AS1530.3 fire rating, FELIX is a unique velvet-look plain that brings character and visual interest with its subtle, mottled print. Oeko-Tex certified, FELIX is perfect for high-traffic areas and will bring a stylish and sophisticated aesthetic to an array of interior spaces.

RELAX IN YOUR OWN OUTDOOR OASIS - MACEDON by Warwick

Inspired by the beauty and serene settings of a town located in Central Victoria, MACEDON is a transitional, two-toned plain — part of our SUNDEC range — that is perfect for creating a natural aesthetic in outdoor settings, as well as within the home. In both contemporary residential and commercial spaces, MACEDON will bring texture and subtle dimension to create appealing pieces that are casual yet stylish.

- DESIGN: Bringing comfort and beautiful quality, MACEDON is a woven, yarn dyed plain with a two-toned finish. Dry to the touch, this collection is ideal for incorporating texture and visual interest in casual or rustic settings — both indoor and outdoor.
- APPLICATION: Oeko-Tex certified and FR tested with Halo easy-clean benefits, MACEDON is bleach cleanable, washable, designed to withstand high sunlight exposure, mould and mildew growth, chlorine, and general wear and tear. From relaxed indoors, to sophisticated outdoors, MACEDON is perfect for creating various upholstery pieces, including sofas, chairs and cushions. Its stylish texture and high-performance characteristics will ensure longevity in both contemporary residential and general commercial spaces.
- COLOURWAYS: In 14 colourways, MACEDON offers a mixture of neutrals with soft pops of colour reminiscent of summer. Timeless, classy neutrals can be found in Chalk, Birch, and Fawn, while Caviar and Panda bring deeper options for a touch of complexity. On the colourful side of the palette, Sherbet and Grass are beautiful zesty tones that are perfect for the warmer seasons.
- RATING: Part of our SUNDEC range with Halo easy-clean properties and Oeko-Tex certification, MACEDON is a must-have for both indoor and outdoor upholstery applications. Featuring a well-balanced palette of timeless colours and certified for quality management system ISO 9001 with an AS1530.3 fire rating, MACEDON will bring modern and relaxed styles with a raw aesthetic.

COMBINING DELECTABLE TEXTURE WITH AN ON-TREND PALETTE - RAMSEY by Warwick

Combine the beauty of subtle texture and soft touch with RAMSEY. Timeless and versatile, RAMSEY is a collection of transitional woven plains that are stylish and perfect for creating on-trend, modern residential and general commercial spaces.

- DESIGN: Whether paired together or with existing collections, RAMSEY offers two woven plain fabrics that bring contrasting texture, visual appeal, and soft touch. Made of chenille yarns for a plush appearance, BURWOOD embodies a subtle dry finish and is ideal for a casual and comforting environment. Bringing a two-toned design with a slight sheen, RAMSEY features a distinctive, small-scale honeycomb weave for a sophisticated look.
- APPLICATION: FR tested and Oeko-Tex certified, RAMSEY is bound to create timeless upholstery pieces, as well as stylish cushions and lampshades, in both residential and general commercial spaces. With the added benefit of Halo easy-clean, RAMSEY is durable in nature and will provide a sense of relaxation and textural appeal to an array of interiors.
- COLOURWAYS: Featuring a palette of 15 colourways, RAMSEY offers classic, playful and on-trend tones that will enliven any space. Warm neutrals can be found in Ivory, Biscuit and Sand, while Pewter, Thunder, Mist and Anchor provide cooler options. For an autumnal touch, Clay and Nectar are beautiful hues that bring warmth. On the bolder side of the spectrum, Thistle and Honey are gorgeous trend-forward shades that are perfect for brightening and evoking joyful moods. Lastly, with the addition of popular Teal, Sky and Denim are great choices for something calming and blue.
- RATING: With Oeko-Tex certification and Halo easy-clean properties, RAMSEY is a versatile and durable collection that will sit with style in any modern residential or general commercial space. Tested for an AS1530.3 fire rating, RAMSEY combines softness with subtle texture to bring comfort and visual interest to a room.

STYLISH DRAPERY FOR A TAILORED, MODERN AESTHETIC - GRADY by Warwick

Create timeless drapery with an effortless, modern aesthetic with GRADY. Relaxed in style, GRADY is a transitional, plain collection that is perfect for creating tailored looks. With a 300cm wide width, GRADY is simple yet boasts sophistication due to its subtle textured finish.

- DESIGN: GRADY is a plain, woven drapery fabric that features a triple weave which provides privacy, as well as dimming out sunlight. Embodying a structured small-scale texture for visual interest and adding dimension, GRADY is dry yet soft, bringing an organic, natural finish and a relaxed feel to an array of spaces.
- APPLICATION: From stylish modern interiors, to casual, yet tailored settings, GRADY is versatile in design and will provide a level of surface interest with its subtle texture. With AS1530.2 and AS1530.3 fire ratings, and the added benefit of Oeko-Tex certification, GRADY offers a generous 300cm wide width, making this collection ideal for large-scale windows, as well as creating practical and contemporary drapery, lampshades, and cushions.
- COLOURWAYS: With a palette of seven key neutrals, GRADY offers classic colour options that are timeless and perfect for any scheme. Snow is a crisp white to brighten interiors, while Ivory and Linen bring warm, neutral hues. Mist, Alloy, Pewter, and Charcoal provide cool-toned alternatives that are perfect for adding visual interest and complexity.
- RATING: Oeko-Tex certified and FR tested to both 1530.2 and 1530.3 standards, this 300cm wide width collection will create simple, yet stylish drapery in any contemporary space. GRADY's subtle textured appearance combined with its soft yet dry feel allows for a myriad of looks and styles to be created, while bringing a relaxed, casual, and tailored look wherever it is featured.

BE IMMERSSED IN TIMELESS DRAPERY - HOLLAND by Warwick

Transitional and contemporary, HOLLAND is a plain, 3-pass coated drapery range that is sophisticated in style and features practical benefits. With a continuous 300cm wide width, HOLLAND will add subtle texture and offers a simplistic, casual look that is ideal for modern residential and urban commercial spaces.

- DESIGN: HOLLAND is a plain, piece dyed drapery with a 3-pass acrylic coating and dry, textured finish. Embodying a yarn dyed appearance with flecks of colour, HOLLAND brings sophistication and practicality, making it an ideal range for privacy and blocking out sunlight.
- APPLICATION: Continuous with a generous 300cm wide width and an AS1530.3 fire rating, this collection is Oeko-Tex certified and creates light-blocking drapes, as well as classic Roman blinds and lampshades that are suitable for both residential and commercial interiors.
- COLOURWAYS: Featuring a classic palette of nine colours, HOLLAND brings the beauty of timeless, modern neutrals with a slight flecked appearance for added dimension. Light neutrals can be found in Nougat, Sand, and Ice, while Champagne offers a classy tone for a subtle addition of colour. On the darker side of the spectrum, Frost and Charcoal are perfect options for incorporating depth.
- RATING: With Oeko-Tex certification, HOLLAND is AS1530.3 fire rated and features a continuous 300cm wide width with a 3-pass acrylic coating, making this 100% block out drapery range ideal for commercial applications, as well as transitional residential interiors. This collection can be easily coordinated into any neutral space and offers the perfect amount of texture to create visual interest.

EMBRACE THE BEAUTY OF REFINED, STONEWASHED LINEN

Named after the Italian word for stone, CALCOLO is a transitional, timeless plain that will sit elegantly in modern interiors. Dual-purpose with a beautiful, stonewashed appearance, CALCOLO is perfect for creating an organic, sophisticated aesthetic and relaxed mood in residential and commercial spaces alike.

DESIGN: CALCOLO is a dry, contemporary, woven plain that embodies a subtle stonewashed look, making this collection ideal for creating elevated, earthy environments. Piece dyed and refined in texture, CALCOLO brings together beauty and sophistication with its luxurious linen blend composition.

APPLICATION: CALCOLO is perfect for those wanting a versatile, dual-purpose plain that is timeless and natural in its design and style. Robust in nature, CALCOLO can be used to create classic drapery and sofas, as well as beautifully textured cushions, Roman blinds, and lampshades.

COLOURWAYS: Featuring 17 contemporary shades, CALCOLO's colour palette is inspired by natural pigments of the earth, achieving an organic finish. Muted neutrals can be found in Tusk, Sand, and Bilby, while Petrol, Space, and Coal bring deeper hues that create contrast and a sense of sophistication to an interior. For a nature-inspired look, Clay, Eucalyptus, and Driftwood offer earthy options.

RATING: Oeko-Tex certified, CALCOLO's appealing texture combined with its stonewashed appearance and earthy palette is bound to create classic styles with a relaxed feel to residential and general commercial spaces. Dual-purpose, this collection is timeless and brings a soft, inviting fabric that will be loved for years.
